

Philly's bakeries and a Scandinavian cocktail lounge make Food & Wine's Global Tastemakers Awards

Food & Wine's list of Global Tastemakers includes such local bakeries as Beiler's, Isgro, Machine Shop, and Merzbacher's. Andra Hem also found its way on the radar.

Behind the ground-level bar at Andra Hem, a Swedish-styled cocktail bar in Rittenhouse.

Jenn Ladd / Staff

by Michael Klein

Published Apr. 2, 2024, 10:00 a.m. ET

In a curious combination of sourdough and smörgås, Philadelphia's bakery scene and Center City's Scandinavian lounge Andra Hem have made Food & Wine's Global Tastemakers Awards this year.

Andra Hem, which opened in late 2022 at 16th and Chancellor Streets, is ranked 14th on F&W's list of 15 U.S. bars, chosen not just for their cocktails but for "a beautiful blend of ambiance, hospitality, and maybe even some notable pub grub." New York bars made the top three on the list.

"Andra Hem is a proper drinks lounge, pure and simple," the blurb reads. "The aesthetic is clean yet warm; formal yet approachable. The Lambhattan [$18] is a curious standout take on the classic American whiskey drink spiced up with lamb-washed bourbon. It sounds bizarre, yet works oh so well."

The Swedish meatballs are not baaad, either.